Associated Women Plan Week Of Stunts, Fun, Merriment

This week, Nov. 14-18, is Women's Week at Valley College. The AWS cabinet and council have made careful plans for stunts so the week will be amusing and different.

The Associated Women Students of Valley will sponsor a series of special activities this year. The events will be carefully planned by the executive board of the AWS under Mrs. Nena Royer's and Miss Helen Mindlin's direction.

All women enrolled in the college automatically become members of the AWS. Their activities are led by the AWS board whose particular duties are to organize and promote the intellectual and social life of the college women. Members of the board are: Polly Tavss, president, Joan Haas, vice president, Joyce Mintz, secretary, and Janice McGonigle, treasurer.

AWS Tea

The mother-daughter tea, first activity sponsored by the group, was an outstanding success. Visiting guests, mothers and faculty, remarked on the lovely flowers and high quality of the program. Approximately 65 mothers and most of the faculty women were among the guests.

Plan Women's Week

Both the cabinet and council are hard at work planning for Women's Week. A new stunt has been scheduled for each day of the week with dire punishment for non-participants. Miss Tavss expressed the hope that each woman would cooperate to make this week pleasant and amusing.

Future plans include a formal installation ceremony for next semester's incoming officers. The executive board is working on an AWS pledge to express the loyalty and high purpose of The Associated Women Students.

NOTICE

All students with an excessive number of absences will be called into the office to determine if mistakes have been made on their permanent records.

Instructors who have been marking the student absent will be notified if the student has dropped the class.

Bulletin

Dick White, Alpha class president, released the following statement: "I would like all those students who are interested in cheer and song leading to contact me immediately in reference to organizing a rally committee. If you have had an previous experience in this line, your service is greatly needed."

A meeting of the club will be held as soon as enough Monarchs respond.

Gifford Appointed To Thompson's Position

Dick Gifford has taken over Kenny Thompson's position on the Student Body Executive Council.

Gifford is tall, blond and a likeable fellow, who is 19, single and a graduate of North Hollywood High. He has come to Valley after a year at L.A.C.C.

"I am very proud and happy to receive the honor of being able to serve on the Executive Council," said Dick, "and I will do my very best to be worthy of it."

The Kenny Thompson household is happily awaiting a visit from the stork, bearing a blue or pink clothed bundle from heaven. Thompson, a veteran faced with papa problems and a 19 unit program, must seek employment.

DODSON COMES BACK AFTER LONG ILLNESS

"It's a grand feeling to be back, I can assure you," says Dr. James Dodson, Valley's genial history instructor.

"I haven't been completely away from the college," he continued, "but have kept in close contact and received all the news through lengthy telephone conversations with Mr. Coultas. Nevertheless, there is nothing like actually being here."

Dr. Dodson has been recuperating from injuries sustained in an automobile accident on August 28. He returned for the week of Sept. 26-30, then suffered a relapse. His eagerness to participate in the organization of the college was partly responsible for his relapse, as he resumed his duties sooner than was advisable.

He was the first faculty member on the job and interviewed students prior to enrollment.

Monarchs To Join National Athletic Association

Coach E. Y. Johnson revealed that the Monarchs have been invited to join the National Junior College Athletic Association. According to Mr. Walter Coultas, Valley will accept.

"This makes possible competition on a regional and national scale and is one more step toward athletic recognition," says Coach Johnson.

Valley will be in the California free lance conference and eligible for open competition. The team will probably not participate in basketball competition in the association this season, but will enter the baseball tournament.

Last year every junior college in the region was a member of the N.J.C.A.A.

Circulating Petitions Favoring New Location

By Ella Cass

When the hearing on the new Valley College site is held on Nov. 15, a group of interested people will be present with petitions supporting their approval of the location at Woodman Ave. and Chandler Blvd.

Upon learning that Mr. Lloyd Wright was representing residents who opposed the site, several property owners in that neighborhood asked how they could voice their approval of the location. Dr. Scott Anderson, retired minister, suggested circulating petitions to obtain names of residents and property owners who favored the proposed location. Mrs. Dorothy Stone, 14135 Chandler Blvd., and Dr. Manford Bennet, 5511 Ventura Ave., first started circulating the petitions.

Circulate Petitions

Mrs. Stone says, "The response was wonderful! We have been up and down both sides of Chandler, Woodman and Magnolia and no one has refused to sign. Several even volunteered to help circulate the petitions."

Mrs. John Stack Jr., 13859 Chandler, was the first to offer her services. Mrs. Harry Bendall, 5436 Murietta Ave., and Mrs. Samuel Earle, 4951 Greenbush Ave., also joined the workers. In a short time, over 200 names have been obtained.

Many To Attend Hearing

Mrs. Stone revealed that interest has been strongly aroused and many plan to attend the hearing. A real estate agent near the site indicated that strongest opposition would come from residents adjacent to the property. However, Mrs. Stone stated that this was not holding true as all the property owners in the immediate vicinity have signed in favor. "Many others have offered to sign, but we are limiting it to the immediate locality for effectiveness," she said.

The Petition

The following is a reprint of the petition: "We the undersigned owners and residents in the vicinity of the proposed location for the Valley Junior College at Chandler and Woodman do highly commend the Los Angeles Board of Education in the selection of a centrally located site for the Valley Junior College which will adequately care for the education of a large number of Junior College students and furthermore, we hope that the purchase of the property will be expedited in order that the buildings may be begun at the earliest possible date."

Musicians Plan Start of Valley Band, Orchestra

Mr. Albert M. Caligiuri, head of the music department, announces that plans for both an orchestra and a band at Valley College lack one essential ingrdient—instrumentalists. A meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 16, at 12 m. in the visual education bungalow. All musicians attending Valley are urged to attend.

Meeting For Musicians

The Nov. 16 meeting will be a milestone in the progress of the college toward musical stature, according to Mr. Caligiuri. He will present his objectives and will welcome suggestions as to how a start may be made in organizing both the band and orchestra. Those who are interested but cannot attend the meeting are requested to contact Mr. Caligiuri in Faculty Hall or in the music room. "I realize", said Mr. Caligiuri, "that the student body at Valley is numerically small this semester, but if all the musicians on our campus will get together on Nov. 16 we will be able to determine what we have available, and then make our plans for the future."

Includes Professionals

Music Makers At Hi-Y Jam Session

The North Hollywood Hi-Y clubs will present a star-studded array of talent, featuring the best of radio and screen artists at a jam session at Valley Garden Arena, 7111 Vineland, North Hollywood on November 17 at 8 p. m.

Tickets for the gargantuan show will be sold by Valley students Don Hoover, Bill Wells, Everett Moore, Tom Church and Andy Gilmore. Tickets will be $1.20 general admission and $1.50 reserved.

Emceeing the Hi-Y Valley Jazz Parade will be Disc Jockeys Peter Potter, Don Otis, Dick Haynes and Maurice Hart.

Musical geniuses who will appear in the jam-packed program are: Peggy Lee, Dave Barber, Bobby Troup, Perry Bolkin, Country Washburne, Buddy Cole, David Allen, Neal Hefty, George Van Epps, Martha Tilton, Curt Massey, Charlie La Vere and Margaret Whiting.

Ted Kovach, music editor of the Valley Times and adviser of the Argonaut Hi-Y, arranged the show.

Notice To Veterans

Mr. Frank R. Hovey, student body financial manager, announces that veterans enrolled under Public Laws 346 and 16 must procure all supplies and books from the book store before Nov. 15, 1949.

On that date all accounts pertaining to the procurement of books, equipment and supplies issued to veterans under these laws will be closed for the current fall session.

This regulation is necessary to meet a time schedule in submitting bills for reimbursement to the Veteran's Administration and to the State of California. It is in accordance with recommendations of the State Department of Education and in line with procedures established in other colleges and universities.

The Personality Of Valley

The personality and prestige of our school is dependent upon you, the students, attending Valley.

The scholastic standards and social elevations you set will become symbolic of all students going to our school.

The attitudes you reflect in class may add a dull tinge to final reports. The habitual griper never leaves anything but a bad impression.

Diversion is an essential part of college life, but academic achievement is the prime requisite.

Progress has changed the world and its inhabitants to such an extent that an individual almost has to have at least two years of college to maintain a moderate position of any description. With so many students in college all over the country, the competition will be anything but slight after graduation.

We are no longer considered adolescents without definite goals in mind. We are looked upon now as adults with decisive aspirations we wish to fulfill through higher learning. Compulsory education is unheard of in college. Keep these few facts in mind if ever tempted to complain about your teachers or assignments. Remember, you are in college because you chose to do so, and you have an intellect you wish to broaden.

When preparing for your own future, endeavor to eliminate any negative characteristics about you that may be offensive to another person.—R. Cluff.

Feminine Gender

By Mel Partee

Among us are those who dream and plan—not excluding some who just dream. Have you heard about Women's Week? We are forbidden to speak to the fellows—for one solid day, that is. I never thought to be victim of capital punishment. Whoever thought of such a purge certainly turned dreaming into a nightmare. Here I expected a fling at Chinatown, a special day to commit bedlam and really talk it up—now, I'm all but tongue tied. No Joke! That is one whole day lost. Wait till you hear the consequence. If we do live dangerously and say as much as one word, we are devoid of makeup; attractive tresses will be braided or straightened — come to think of it, I think I'll load up on scotch tape. Anyone in his right mind knows what the results are going to be. Several times I've heard mutterings of decided unrest in our mist. That's right, I said mist, for that is the view from where I sit as bravely tread I through these printed words. Already I am fearful of the end, for surely the end it will be for some of us—such a plight shall be our undoing.

WOMEN WILL NOT SPEAK TO MEN

From the ridiculous to the sublime is the apparent theme of the female students at Valley College this week.

The 'week' is Women's Week, a time that includes fun and merriment for all.

Stunts, odd and unthinkable, are planned for each day of this momentous occasion.

Monday will be most unusual, to say the least. The girls, under the unwritten laws governing them for this one day, are not allowed to utter a sound to any member of the opposite sex. If they are caught doing so, untold consequences will be their fate.

Tuesday? Wednesday? Thursday? Friday? What will the morrows bring?

NANCY'S NOOK

By Nancy Helser

Friends, Romans and you people in Valley College. What do you think of our school motto? Oh, there isn't any? Well, got any ideas on the subject?

How about you, Inie Vellone?

"My one and only thought on this matter is that the motto shouldn't necessarily be in Latin. I fully realize that this is an old custom, but tradition shouldn't be that strong."

And Miss Peggy Smith, what views do you have on the topic at hand?

" 'Nil sine numine' would be a very appropriate motto for the school. It means 'Nothing without divine guidance' and is the motto of the state of Colorado. It seems to me that this just about sums it up."

Now let's see what the opposite six thinks about this all-important topic.

Don Ferrel, what have you to offer to this discussion?

"A Latin motto looks formal and intelligent. There is a saying of the Romans that goes something like this: 'Per aspera ad astra'—'To the stars through difficulties.' This sets a high goal for everyone."

Another suggestion was offered to me by Duane Horsky, who said: "The motto should definitely be in Latin if only because most mottos are, but it should be short and concise."

This cross section of ideas should prove to be of interest to the committee on the school motto.

Speaker Emphasizes 'Salesmen are Made'

Joseph E. Preininger, area manager of the National Cash Register Company, visited Mr. A. B. Stridborg's salesmanship class last Monday at 1 p. m. Mr. Preininger spoke on sales training and the openings for alert young people in business today. He emphasized that salesmen are not born; they are made.

President of AWS Announces New Council Members

Polly Tavss, president of the AWS, announces the appointment of the AWS council. They are: Shirley Mintz and Diane Murphy, co-chairmen of clubs; Michele Arons, historian; Janie Crisp, publicity; Sandy Miles, clean-up chairman; Diane Baker and Doris Bell, social co-chairmen; Nancy Farr and Pat Mulholland, refreshments; Irene Hansen, traditions; Pat Perry and Nancy Ohms, decorations and posters.

Miss Tavss said that she appointed these girls because each had shown special interest and ability in service to AWS.

Musicians Plan

at Valley College is to make the music department a cultural center for the Valley where music lovers can have an opportunity to participate in and listen to fine music," says Mr. Caligiuri. "Many people from the studios and other professional groups would join these classes. We also hope to form listening choruses dealing with symphonic and operatic works."

Caligiuri Highly Trained Musician

Mr. Caligiuri is a Master of Arts with a major in musicology. During the war, he was a bandleader in the 78th infantry division stationed in the European theatre. After the war, he taught at Hollywood High School and produced four light operas.

For several years, Mr. Caligiuri had charge of the All-City High School Orchestra, an outstanding group of instrumentalists. He has studied with Albert Coates and Vladimir Backaleinikoff, who is considered an authority on conducting techniques.

THE VALLEY FORGE

By RAY CLUFF

The other day, as I was perambulating about these premises, I chanced to notice a couple in a rat race bomb going over a scene that would put Elizabeth and Essex to shame.

These dime-a-dozen dramas aren't smiled upon by the local residents.

Let's practice a little conservation of our natural resources when in the immediate vicinity of the college.

Save those passion lips for a nocturnal tempest in Topanga Canyon.

Saga of the Lunch Sack

Our neighbors are rapidly becoming averse to wading through the sea of paper sacks and miscellaneous dregs left by the seething mass of humanity after members of the local tribe have devoured their lunches.

Tossing garbage to the four winds and the seven seas is, somehow very unpopular in this section of Southern California.

This isn't a proclamation but merely a word to the wise.

Education on Asphalt

With the disappearance of the terra firma here abouts, comes the black blanket covering our campus. This will eliminate the dust bowl atmosphere and also relieve the thought of losing students in the inevitable quagmire if it should rain.

Now you can shine your shoes and leave 'em that way.

Wolves Stomp Panthers 13-0; Fernando Crawls From Cellar

By Garth Myers

The high flying Wolves of Van Nuys High added another pelt to their belt last Thursday afternoon, when they tangled with a mediocre Franklin eleven and pounded the Panthers 13-0.

This win keeps the Wolves in the running for the loop flag along with North Hollywood and Canoga Park with a three and one record. Time after time huge gains were made through the combo of Withrow to Bartley. Franklin failed to muster their power in any main threat throughout the game.

North Hollywood - Verdugo Hills

Verdugo Hills' hopes were given the old heave ho last Thursday after the Huskies from Bingville (North Hollywood, to you, commoner) tripped the Dons 19-0. The ever changing pennant scramble now finds the Huskies leading the league with four wins and one loss. Canoga Park and Van Nuys follow closely (3-1). There is quite a bit of mourning going on up in ye olde hills, 'tis said, for this was (or is) the greatest football season the Dons have had. After losing to the Hunters 20-0, they bounced back to upset Franklin 6-0, then Eagle Rock 19-0. But North Hollywood ended their hope, for a little while anyhow.

San Fernando vs. Eagle Rock

Once again the hopeless Eagles went down to defeat. This time at the merciless claws of a fired up Tiger eleven, 35-0. The Tigers scored 4 times in the first half and then easily coasted the rest of the way. Long runs featured an otherwise smooth game. Fernando's versatile Vic Cook tallied twice (one a 50 yarder) and also passed to Sheldon Allen for a T. D. Ken Ketchie also scored from 40 yards out via the tackle route. Bill Shipps ran his conversion string to 17 straight (including seven in his last game of 48) for one of the city's highest.

Canoga Park vs. Santa Barbara

Traveling out of the valley, and also out of their class, the Canoga Park Hunters (one of Valley's pennant leaders) came home smarting from a 33-13 defeat at the hands of the Santa Barbara Dons. Canoga's two touchdowns were tallied by the passing combination of Tim Ward to Bob Heydenfeldt.

Sports Down Pat

By PAT FLAHERTY

Looking over the sporting scene we find some of the following tid-bits: Valley has received its new basketball unies, featuring (get this!) gold basketball shoes . . . although golden-hued shoes may look to you as being just a fad, they have a definite purpose . . . basketball players, in order to avoid being out-faked, keep their eyes on the opposing players' feet . . . those foolhardy enough to watch an opponent's upper body or head are easily out feinted by movements of the shoulders, head or eyes . . . it is also easier to pick out a golden-shoed teammate breaking for the basket than attempting the same task out of a maze on twenty black shoed individuals . . . looks like we'll have to string along with North Hollywood's Huskies to walk off with the Valley League gonfalon during the coming casaba season . . . chief opposition should come from Verdugo Hills and the "school across the street," Van Nuys High . . . saw the Huskies lost a close one to my alma mammy, Hollywood High, last Friday, but they looked like the class of the league even in defeat . . . wonder what that makes Hollywood? . . . quite a few former prep football stars are now attending Valley . . . Whitey Reaves, all-valley and all-city end from Canoga Park and Emmet Darough, another Hunter flash, get their homework assignments from Valley . . . ditto Everett Moore, conversion specialist from North Hollywood and Pat Mulholland (ah, 'tis a fine name) former wing man for Van Nuys . . . Dec. 2 marks the date of Valley's first athletic event . . . our cross country team will try to bring home the bacon from E.L.A.J.C. . . . the following week we will have a basketball game right here on the home hardwood . . . my last reminder, before I get dot-happy, is that Valley, as yet, has no special yells or songs . . . 'nuff said?

Monarchs To Have New Basketball Uniforms Soon

Coach Ben McFarland announced that new basketball uniforms should be available by December 3.

Fifteen gold jerseys with green shorts with a gold side stripe will be the Monarch's home colors.

Green jerseys with gold numbers and gold shorts with green stripes will be the noblemen's traveling attire. Blazoned across the jerseys will be Valley representing the surging school from the far west. Coach McFarland expressed a desire to have a complete gold outfit with green trimmings, but at present this prospect has not materialized.

Grid Schedule

Friday, Nov. 11 — East Los Angeles at Bakersfield; El Camino at Santa Monica.

Thursday, Nov. 17 — East Los Angeles at San Diego.

Saturday, Nov. 19 — Santa Monica at Bakersfield.

Friday, Nov. 25—East Los Angeles at El Camino.

All games start at 8 p.m.

This week's guests are Mr. Donald Prismon representing the faculty and Dave Summers, the students. Last week's winner was Coach Ben McFarland who picked 7 out of 8 for top score. Pat Flaherty and Walt Tucker tied for second. Pat Flaherty remains atop the heap with Myers second and Coach Johnson a close third.

Skateland Holds Open House For Collegians

Valley Skateland, located at 5900 Sepulveda Boulevard, is opening its doors to the students at Valley College.

The roller rink is extending this special invitation to the Valley collegians only on Thursday night, November 17.

The owners of Skateland are anxious to organize skating clubs; and, if enough response is received on this night, special nights may be reserved to accommodate members.
